CENTRAL MARINE FISHERIES RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Historical

The Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute (CMFRI) was established on 3rd February 1947 by the Government of India under the Ministry of Food and Agriculture with temporary Headquarters at Madras, which was shifted to Mandapam Camp in 1949 and to Cochin in 1971. In 1967 the administrative control of the Institute was transferred to the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR).

Functions

- ❖ To undertake basic, strategic and applied research in marine fisheries and mariculture.
- ❖ To monitor and assess the fisheries resources of the Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ) and to understand the stock and its dynamics in relation to environment and human interventions.
- ❖ To develop and commercialize hatchery and production system technologies for finfish, shellfish and other commercial marine organisms in coastal and open seas.
- ❖ To build up database on marine biodiversity, carry out research on fragile marine ecosystems for their conservation and restoration.
- ❖ To undertake research on utilization of potentially beneficial marine organisms.
- ❖ To act as a repository of information on marine fishery resources with a systematic and analytical database for policy interventions and to carry out research on social and economic costs and benefits of marine fisheries.
- ❖ To conduct front line demonstrations and training to develop human resources for R&D in capture fisheries, mariculture.
- ❖ To create awareness and provide training and consultancy services.

Scientific Divisions

Multidisciplinary research efforts in capture and culture fisheries are facilitated through ten Divisions: Fisheries Resources Assessment, Pelagic Fisheries, Demersal Fisheries, Crustacean Fisheries, Molluscan Fisheries, Fishery Environment Management, Marine Bio-Technology, Socio-Economic Evaluation Technology Transfer, Marine Biodiversity and Mariculture.

Subordinate establishments

To effectively carry out the tasks, the Institute has established Regional Centres at Mandapam Camp, Visakhaptnam and Veral, Research Centres at Mumbai, Karwar, Mangalore, Calicut, Vizhinjam, Tuticorin and Chennai and 15 Field Centres all along the coast. Headquarters coordinates the entire activities at Kochi.

Location of CMFRI at Kochi

The Headquarters at the Institute at Kochi (Ernakulam) is located 250 mtr away from Kerala High Court (behind) and is at a distance of about 4 km from Ernakulam Junction Railway Station, 2.5 km from Ernakulam Town Railway Station and 3 km from Kerala State Road Transport Corporation Bus stand and about 31 km away from Cochin International Airport.
