

WALK-IN-INTERVIEW FOR THE SELECTION OF SENIOR RESEARCH FELLOW /DATA ENTRY OPERATOR

ADVERTISEMENT NO.CMFRI /SEETTD / 24.07.2015

The CMFRI research project on " Performance appraisal of Theeramythri initiatives in Kerala – Benefit monitoring assessment and visioning for the future" for the Society for Assistance to Fisherwomen (SAF), under the Theeramythri program was sanctioned for the year 2015-16. SAF provides continued handholding and mentoring to the micro enterprises and livelihood ventures that were established under the earlier Tsunami rehabilitation programs. Besides sustaining and strengthening the existing enterprises, each year marginalized fisherwomen are identified, trained and assisted to start new micro enterprises for income generation. SAF activity groups have emerged as a new model in catering socio-economic empowerment of fisherwomen by providing sustained livelihood security to the fisherwomen. This project assesses the benefit monitoring and evaluation of different units across different categories and develop a road map for its future plan and actions.
