

Resource Monitoring System

A wide range of fishing craft & gear are employed to fish

Fishes are landed at fishing harbours & landing centres

A scientifically developed statistical design is employed to collect data

Stock Assessment,
Resource Status,
Modelling,
Forecasting and
Marine Fisheries
Policy

Reports in various formats are prepared and are used for

The data transmitted to Headquarters are verified, analysed, processed & stored in a database

